GED Candidates' Code

Before the test - - -

- Understand that the GED Tests measure general knowledge and skills obtained through a combination of education and life experience.
- Know that classes, tutoring and the Official GED Practice Tests are available through local adult education programs.
- Complete all application forms honestly and accurately.
- Inform the Examiner of special needs which may require accommodations for fair testing.

Day of the test - - -

- Arrive at the test site early, with all required paperwork and forms of identification.
- Cooperate fully at all times.
- Follow all instructions regarding smoking, eating, rest room policies, allowed or disallowed materials, and the penalties for testing with unfair advantages.
- Silence your cellular phone, pager, or similar device before entering the testing room.

During the test - - -

- Listen closely and comply with all test instructions, paying special attention to marking the answer sheets correctly and writing on the assigned essay topic.
- Respect the privacy of others and their right to take the tests under conditions conducive to success.
- Answer all test questions to the best of our ability.
- Use all the time available and check your work before turning in the test.

After the test - - -

- Keep the test questions confidential.
- Safeguard your diploma and score report.
- Report evidence of unfair testing or altered documents to the GED Examiner.
- If you did not pass the GED Tests, enroll in classes, pursue further study, and take the tests another time.
- Tell friends and relatives how to obtain information about taking the GED Tests.